STEWARDS AT PALMETTO PARK REVISE PLAC-ING IN OVERNIGHT HANDICAP.

Backers of Wilhite Criticize Ruling Because in Re-Arrangement of Placing L. H. Adair Is Advanced to Second Place-Say He Finished Last.

Charleston, S. C., February IS.—The running of today's fourth race at Palmetto Park, a handicap at one mile and a sixteenth, was attended by unusual happenings. In addition to ordering the first disputilification of the meeting by the displacement of the Bedwell entry, lochiel and Pardner, which indished fifth, to second place and gave third money to Wibitte, which it was generally conceded had haished fifth, to second place and gave third money to Wibitte, which was generally reddied with finishing fourth. Steeth, which finished third, was placed first. The disqualification of the Bedwell entry came as a result of crowding on the first lart, where Pardner, handled by the diminuitye J. Smyth, took a bad swerve and caromed into Kalinka, causing the latter to fall and break a leg, necessitating her destruction. Sheeth went into the lead on the first lurn, but relinquished it to the Bedwell pair during the stretch racing. Sleeth had a three-lengths margin over Wilhite at the end and the latter was about as far in advance of L. fl. Adair. Jockey W. Ward, who had the mount on Kalinka, suffered a compound fracture of the coliar bone and was taken to a hospital. Some of those anacquainted with the rules of racing could not understand why both of the Bedwell horses were disqualified, but when the matter was explained to them they took it in the right spirit. The backers of Wilhire were a chagrined lot, however, and induged in much criticism of the official action, which was asserbed to the confusion arising from the anismal incident attending the running of the face.

Jockey Smyth, who had the mount on Pardner, was suspended for seven days for rough riding.

C. J. Courtney of Charlotte, N. C., arrived this morning with the mare Masks and Faces.

The majority from Juarez regarding the filly Grey-Phune has led to the disclosure here that shortly hefore the first of this year a couple of Syrians wisited J. L. Holland's stable and asked for a price on Trade Mark. They accepted the terms immediately acquainted the Jockey Ci

Jockey Keogh is suffering with an attack of pneumonia and will be out of the saddle for the remainder of the month.

The firing irons have been applied to Fred Levy's ankles and no attempt will be made to race him again until late in the season in Canada.

John Furlong was excused from starting in the Rutledge Handicap. He pulled up lame after being worked this morning, but the injury is supposed to be of a slight nature.

Some good trials were shown at Palmetto Park this morning, including the following:

NOTES OF THE TURF.

S. J. Kelley is planning to retire from racing and engage in breeding in a small way in the vicinity of El Paso.

Jockey Charles Korb has returned to Europe from ew York and will ride during the coming season r Herr V. von Mautner-Markhof in Germany. It develops that the losing of a plate and the spreading of a foot were responsible for Weyanoke's poor showing the last time he raced at Juarez.

Trainer J. Johnston was recently cautioned by the stewards at Juarez on account of the inconsistent racing of Captain Burns. This was after the colt had won following a race in which he had made a poor showing in contrast to previous good performances. Johnston claimed that a collision with another horse in the race in question was responsible for the reversal.

for the reversal.

A movement is on foot for the introduction of a bill at the next session of the California Legislature for the rehabilitation of racing in California on sound lines. The bill, as it is being framed, calls for a racing commission to control the sport, with meetings limited so as not to exceed twelve days in any one county. Pari-mutuels will be the form of wagering and it is planned that the state shall receive a percentage of the receipts.

CHARLESTON MEETING IS EXTENDED.

Charleston, S. C., February 18.—Advices were received tonight from the Jockey Club at New York announcing that an extension of twenty-four days to its meeting asked for by the Charleston Fair and Racing Association had been granted. This will bring the closing date here on March 28. Originally it had been intended to close February 28. The additional racing time came as a result of the earnest plea of the horsemen here wou would have been idle pending the opening of racing at Norfolk and in Kentucky. The horsemen are naturally jubilant over the granting of the extension.

MUD RUNNERS GET CHANCE

AFTER LONG SPELL OF FAST GOING, RAIN TRANSFORMS JUAREZ COURSE.

Much Scratching Follows Change in Track Conditions and Declaring Off of One Race Became Necessary-Cantem Wins Handicap.

El Paso, Tex., February 18.—For the first time in many weeks, horses with a fancy for soft going were given their chance at Juarez today. There was a heavy downpour of rain during the night and the course was rendered heavy and holding for this afternoon's racing. There was considerable scratching and the third race was so depleted thereby that it was declared off and a substitute provided in the shape of a selling affair at five-eighths of a mile for horses three years old and over.

Maud McKee, backed from 10 to 1 to 6 to 1, won the opening dash by a nose from General Warren, which had supplanted Compton in favoritism. Tyree, which had been backed into favoritism in the second race, lost to Quid Nune, one of the receding choices, by a head. The others in this race were badly beaten off. The substituted race was won by Ida Lavinia, a well-supported favorite. She came from far back to beat the pacemaker, Thistle Belle.

The mile handicap that served as the day's feature, was won by the lightly-weighted Cantem, the extreme outsider in the betting. He was ridden by jockey Haynes and, leading from start to finish, won by as far as his rider pleased from Just Red, the clesing favorite.

Dr. G. M. Miller of Detroit has purchased from Henry McDaniel the two-vear-old colt For Fair for

Dr. G. M. Miller of Detroit has nurchased from Henry McDaniel the two-year-old colt For Fair for a private consideration. Dr. Miller owns Luther, which has raced creditably here.

Jockey A. Claver, under a suspension of twenty days, has decided not to remain until the close of the meeting as he had originally intended. He will leave tonight for Toronto to join the stable of Robert Davies, his new contract employer.

TO I OR BETTER

This is my GUARANTEE relative to my $10 SPECIAL which goes Saturday, February 21. Mind, it must WIN (not second or third), or I will give the balance of Charleston—including ALL specials—FREE. Now I KNOW some-thing.

$10---No More; No Less.

In order to prevent LEAKS, this horse will NOT be released from my office until NOON Saturday. But it will be filed with this paper—THE NIGHT BEFORE. And the price MUST be 5 to 1 or better. I am charging $10, and it should be $100.

SPECIAL—You cannot obtain this information EXCEPT direct from me. It will not appear in my regular newspaper selections. Rush your subscription—NOW. Offer closes Friday. Don't be a mollycoddle. Here's one I think is "in." E-NOUGH.
